

LAND STEWARDSHIP ASSISTANCE IN HOUSTON TOAD HABITAT

- When? January 15, 2010; Registration begins at 8:30am; Estimated end time 4pm
- Where? McKinney Roughs Nature Park—Dining Hall, 1884 State Highway 71 West Cedar Creek, TX 78612, 1-800-776-5272 x8041, http://www.lcra.org/community/mckinney_roughs.html, Look for the windmill above the trees at the entrance.
- Cost? $5/person (lunch and materials included) - pay at the door
- Who? Landowners in potential or historic Houston toad habitat within Austin, Bastrop, Burleson, Colorado, Lavaca, Lee, Leon, Milam and Robertson counties
- What? Emphasis will be placed on providing information about a variety of land stewardship assistance programs available to landowners in Houston toad habitat

Presentations in the morning, followed by field trip to Houston toad habitat in the afternoon. Presentation topics will include the following:

- Current status of the Houston toad
- Lost Pines Habitat Conservation Plan Grant Program
- Bastrop County – Partners for Fish and Wildlife Program
- Cooperative Conservation Partnership Initiative – NRCS Program
- Landowner Incentive Program
- Field trip to actively-managed Houston toad habitat following lunch

Please RSVP by 5pm Friday, January 8, 2010 via email at meredith.longoria@tpwd.state.tx.us or by phone at 512-332-7280